

Activities of Daily Living Assessment:

Assess the Activities of Daily Living of a client to determine safety, level of independence, and to assist to create a safe, workable environment through equipment, modifications, services, and skill training. Activities of daily living include dressing, feeding, grooming, homemaking, etc.