

Childcare/Dependent Assessment:

Assess the client and his/her abilities to care for young children or a dependent in the home as they did prior to an injury. Assessments will take the social situation and medical status into consideration while assessing self-care and home care tasks for those dependents.