

Functional Capacity Evaluations:

Our medical, kinesiophysical approach uses research-based, objective testing to identify strength and activity tolerances. Matheson Testing procedures help identify any self-limiting behaviours while ensuring no injuries occur during testing.