

Functional Reconditioning:

This fully supervised, individualized, goal/work-oriented program includes gym exercises for clients whose symptoms are stable but require physical conditioning to improve their strength, endurance, or mood in order to assist in early/safe return to work. Basic functional ability is tested on program assessment and discharge (including basic lifting/carrying ability). Education in hurt vs harm is included.