

Home Assessment:

Assess the home and make recommendations for modifications and equipment for safety in the home including home access, safety equipment in the home such as bathroom equipment, railings, ramp, and other equipment. Addressing these issues can impact the client's ability to manage effectively at work.