

Hospital Discharge Assessment:

Assist with discharge planning from a hospital (local or other). This includes liaising with family, hospital staff and home care services in order to arrange for a safe and timely discharge. This could include arranging for home care services, equipment, and home modifications. Recommendations for rehabilitation services in the community often result in maintenance of the therapeutic momentum already established in the hospital.