

Mental Health Return to Work:

Individual sessions with a therapist can assist clients with mental health issues, who are stable and ready to progress, to return to normal life roles and work. Goal and activity oriented, customized to specific client needs.