

Percentage of Duties / Job Demands Analysis (POD/JDA):

Assess the job demands of a self-employed position using objective measurements of the physical and cognitive demands of that position. Measurements such as lifting, carrying, pushing, standing, sitting, climbing, reaching, decision making etc are taken into account. The percentage of work completed prior to an injury is compared to hours and duties able to complete at the time of the assessment.