

Personal Care Assessment:

Work with clients to understand their needs in the areas of bathing, dressing, toileting, and mobility as well as other aspects of independent living. Following assessment, the OT will provide a report outlining recommendations to support the client in safe and independent functioning.